WANTED.—A furnished house with five rooms. Apply at APPEAL office.

A COMPLICATING TECHNICALITY.—A point was raised in the Pritchard case yesterday which may possibly result in the acquittal of Pritchard, now on trial for murder. The eleventh juror secured yesterday was J. C. Dorsey, and when asked if he had any prejudice against capital punishment said that he had not. He was accordingly sworn in. The twelfth juror was secured soon afterwards and when he had been sworn in Dorsey informed the Court that he would not vote to hang a man under any circumstances. The Court here suggested that he was hardly the man for the case and he was challenged by the prosecution and excused. Mr. Soderberg, for the defense, immediately filed a special plea in which he held that as the prisoner had been put on trial for his life and acquitted he could not be tried for the same offense. In law a man's life is in jeopardy as soon as the jury is sworn in and the discharge of one juror after the twelve have been sworn, in is held to be equivalent to discharging the whole. The Court took the matter under advisement until this morning. The question now arises as to whether Soderberg is entitled to a new jury to pass upon his plea. Should a decision be rendered in his favor Pritchard becomes a free man without further trial. The hitch was caused by the juror Dorsey, who swore that he did not object to hanging, and immediately afterward asserted, still under oath, exactly the contrary. With such a man on a jury it would of course be impossible to convict, and it appears that at the time his mental condition became known it was impossible to discharge him without disorganizing the jury.

A SHORT STORY.—A prominent saloon keeper in Carson writes a letter to a girl asking for an interview.

Girl gets mad, tears the letter in four pieces and throws them in the street.

Designing store clerks gather up the pieces, make out context, write to male admirer telling him to wear blue ribbon and straw hat at Turners' picnic.

Clerks and gang follow the man round at picnic.

Next day man writes to girl asking why appointment was slighted. Girl forms and tears letter into 96 pieces.

Clerks all day trying to make pieces and lines come out even.

They write a letter telling man slight unavoidable, and suggest coming up to Virginia in a buggy to take the girl down in the moonlight.

Man goes up to International Hotel and inquires for girl. No girl. Livery man presents bill for $16.

A LIVELY PAIR OF GLOVES.—A few days ago Fred Phelps and Dr. Smart picked up a new pair of buckskin gloves in the street. It was immediately agreed to throw dice for the find. While shaking, Mr. Preddey came up and offered to treat if he were allowed to come in. He treated, shook and lost. Phelps won the gloves, and going down to Hodkin's, traded them off for a pair of driving gloves by paying $2 to boot. He presented these gloves to Dr. Smart. Next day the man who lost the original gloves called upon Phelps and demanded them. Phelps went to Hodkin's to buy them back, but they had been sold to a Reno man. Phelps finally bought a new pair for the man who had lost the original buckskins and now is trying to figure up how much he made by throwing four sixes at dice.

A LIVELY SET BACK.—The Davis and Hyde families which started for the lake a few days ago to camp out, met with considerable of a set back when near the Saints Rest. The reach of the conveyance broke, and bag and baggage, families and children, including the twins, rolled down the hill. It took nearly an hour to get the head of one of the boys out of an iron pot into which it had been jammed. A letter received from the party last night would bring tears to the eyes of a Washoe brave. Their mishaps are only the little incidents of life at the lake and should be met with christian fortitude.

The watering cart man is always careful never to shed a drop of water before the premises of a man who doesn't settle for the luxury. Yesterday he allowed his sprinkler to squirt before the house of a non-subscriber but stopping his cart shut off the supply and then went back and mopped up the water with a sponge.

SIGNOR A. B. BACH has invented an affair which when placed in the roof of the mouth intensifies the sound. He intends it for the use of singers, but suppose a man's wife were to get one to back up a midnight Caudle lecture with. The saints of heaven protect us after that.

A Carson Valley farmer has given up his pew in church because the fly season is coming on. He says he can milk cows without wearing when the old thing's tail comes round nine times a minute and wipes him across the face.

THE moonshiners party at Treadway's last night for the benefit of the Ladies' Union drew a large crowd, and dancing was kept up until a late hour. It is proposed to have more of the same sort.

THE HEAT.—The highest temperature yesterday was 97½ and the lowest 60. The mean temperature for the 24 hours was 63½. This is official from Friend and shows the hottest day of the season.

A CURIOUS ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon a curious accident happened to a party of excursionists from San Francisco who were driving down from Lake Bigler. John Simons, William Townsend and Charles N. Balch who had spent a week at the lake were coming down in a private conveyance; when in Clear Creek canyon just this side of where the flume crosses the road for the first time, the team was struck by a falling boulder. They were driving along leisurely when Mr. Balch saw the rock, which weighed several tons, coming down the steep mountain side. He called the attention of his comrades to the fact, and an effort was made to whip the horses up. At the same instant they saw the danger themselves, and became so frightened, that they simply backed on their haunches and snorted with terror. It was only the work of a few seconds for the rock to reach the team, and it struck them it swept them off the road into the stream at the right, and sent the wagon and its occupants into the bushes. The heavy growth of willows broke the force of their fall, and aside from a few scratches they were uninjured. One of the horses was completely obliterated and the driver, Townsend, was covered with the spattered blood. The other horse was so badly mangled that he was shot in the head with revolvers to relieve him of his misery. Last night Doc Benton sent up a team and brought down the wagon which was but little damaged. The fall of the boulder was probably caused by the gradual loosening of the soil beneath it. The horses belonged to the party and were valued at $600.

THE proposed game of baseball between the Socials and V. & T. baseball clubs will not come off on Sunday. Cause, too many broken fingers in the V. & T. nine.

CHANGE OF PARTNERSHIP.—John Giebeau has bought out the blacksmith shop of McLaran, Jefferson & Co., and will hereafter assume the responsibilities of the business.

A CARSON man who was very proud of his twins showed a picture of them to a lady who paralyzed him with the query: "Which one is your's?"

Mrs E. M. HUNT has returned from Glenbrook. She came down the precipitous defile all alone on horse-back by moonlight.

FRED PHELPS, of the Mint, was thrown from a buggy night before last, and sprained his ankle.

JOSEPH RAU, the blacksmith who was paralyzed the other day, is fast improving.

THE fishing at Hope Valley continues to attract the enthusiastic angler.

THE baseball clubs are electing honorary members to their ranks.

Assemblyman Mayhugh, one of the "stand ups" is in the city.

DAN DE QUILL predicts that the moon is going to pieces.

Tammany.

SARATOGA, July 23.
The Tammany Democratic State Committee met to-day. Several members sent substitutes. The Secretary said he had resignations from all the candidates for Presidential Electors nominated at the Shakespeare Hall Convention. Page, of Oswego, moved the acceptance. Cowen, of Saratoga, thought it better to appoint a committee to confer with other organizations before accepting the resignations. No action was taken on the motion. John Kelly, chairman, appointed five members to act with the chairman and secretary, to prepare an address.

Arizona Indians on a Jamboree.

WASHINGTON, July 23.

Grant in Leadville.

LEADVILLE, July 23.
Gen. Grant arrived last evening at 9:30. He was received by a company of mounted police, two companies of cavalry, five companies of infantry, the city fire department and five hundred veterans of the late war. A salute of one hundred guns was fired while the procession marched through the city. The line of march was brilliantly illuminated and decorated with evergreens and flags. The streets were crowded and it is estimated that nearly thirty thousand people were on the streets. The General excused himself from making a speech on account of hoarseness. To-morrow he will visit the mines, and attend the theater. A ball and reception will take place after the theater. The party will remain until Monday. The city expends twenty thousand dollars, mostly raised by private subscription for the entertainment.

Indian Scare in Kansas.

TOPEKA, July 23.
H. X. Devendorf, who was sent by Gov. St. John to inquire into the reported Indian depredations on the Cimarron, has returned, and says that a party of five Osage Indians attacked a herd of horses owned by Mr. Driscoll, whose uncle is located about 45 miles south of Dodge City, and near the Cimarron river. The herder in charge of the horses undertook to drive them away until his horse was killed. The Indians secured five horses and left, returning to Indian Territory. Capt. Leschum with 40 mounted soldiers left Fort Dodge the day before Devendorf arrived, acting under telegraphic orders from Gen. Pope, who had been notified by the Governor of the rumor. Cattle men are securing all the arms and ammunition they can find, and mean to defend themselves if there are other attempts of this kind.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 23.
The Council of Ministers yesterday decided on a reply to the collective note to the Powers. The reply asks the Powers to agree in principle that Janina, Larissa and Mezova shall remain in Turkish possession, and proposes that the Porte shall re-open negotiations with Greece on this basis. This is substantially a rejection of the decisions of the Berlin Congress.

George Brown's Murderer Hanged.

TORONTO, July 23.
George Bennett, alias Dickson, convicted of the murder of the late George Brown (proprietor and editor of the Globe) was hanged in the jail-yard this morning. ## IMPURE BREATH.

Among all the disagreeable consequences that follow the decay of the teeth, an impure breath must be the most mortifying and unpleasant to its possessor, and it is the most inexcusable and offensive in society; and yet the cause of it may easily be removed by cleansing your teeth daily with that justly popular dentifrice, Fragrant SOZODONT. It purifies and refreshes the breath, cools and refreshes the mouth, and gives a pearl-like appearance to the teeth. Gentlemen who indulge in smoking should cleanse their teeth with SOZODONT, as it removes all unpleasant odors of the weed. Ask your druggist for it.
